NEW HAVEN:

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY J. H. BENHAM,
55 Orange street.
1847.

IN presenting to the public the City Directory for the year 1847-8, it has been the aim of the publisher to make its compilation as correct as possible, yet notwithstanding all his vigilance, errors, undoubtedly, will be found. He trusts that with increasing experience, these objections will be entirely removed. The changes in the City during the past year have been about 1500, and the Directory contains nearly 1000 new names. The volume also contains a Directory of Fair Haven, which will be made more complete in after years. The work has been carefully revised by gentlemen whose information on matters pertaining to the city is extensive.

The subscriber will continue to issue it annually on or about the first of June with additional improvements.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

The city holds its privileges and immunities under a charter which was granted by the Legislature, in January, 1784, to which additions and amendments have been passed at various times.

The administration of the fiscal, prudential, and municipal department of the city, with the conduct, direction and government of its affairs, is vested in a Mayor, four Aldermen, and twenty Common Councilmen.

The Board of Common Council (of which the Mayor is moderator) is composed of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Councilmen. The meetings of the Board are held on the first Tuesday in each month. It has authority to make by-laws relative to markets, commerce, city jurors, streets, highways, nuisances, wharves, anchoring and mooring of vessels, shade trees—public or private, trespasses, public walks, buildings, chimneys, fires, produce, city watch, burials, public lights and lamps, the mode of taxation, and the infliction of penalties for the breach of such by-laws. Such by-laws to be approved by the city in legal meeting assembled.

The annual meeting of the city is held on the Monday preceding the first Tuesday in June, when the Mayor, (who is also Judge of the City Court,) a Clerk, four Aldermen, (two of whom are designated as Associate Judges,) twenty Common Councilmen, two Sheriffs, a Treasurer, an Auditor, and a Collector of Taxes, are chosen by ballot.

The City Court has cognizance of all civil cases where the title of land is not concerned, and has the same power and authority, and proceeds in the same manner in granting executions as the County Courts of this State, provided the cause of action arise within the limits, and one or both of the parties is a resident of the city; and an appeal from this Court lies to the Superior Court.

The Mayor and Aldermen are severally possessed of the powers and authority which by law are given to a Justice of the Peace.
